RACE NIGHT

Fridays at 7.30 pm

TRACK LENGTH

280 metres

TRACK RECORD

56.1 seconds by Frede Schott on 28 June 2002 (44.66 mph)

HOW TO GET THERE

From Edinburgh, take the M8 motorway westwards to junction 4, then travel northwards and across two roundabouts. At the third roundabout, the stadium lies 100 yards to the left. There is a stadium car park for 250 cars, and an industrial car park within a short walking distance. Supporters are requested NOT to park in front of the neighbouring houses.

Anyone without transport is recommended to use the Monarch supporter bus. This leaves from Waterloo Place (at the east end of Princes Street) at 6.30 pm. The bus departs from Armadale ten minutes after the last race.

FACILITIES

Sloped, roofed terracing on back straight. Roofed terracing and uncovered grass verges around first and second bends. Hospitality suite on the second bend with a panoramic view of the circuit from the veranda. Viewing from the stadium bar, as long as you get to the front. Refreshments available from bar looking out on second bend and back straight, Elaine's Tea Bar and fast food van.
